

AdVictory—a leading digital ad management platform specializing in data optimization, targeting, and delivery—is proud to partner with Victory Phones to offer unprecedented integration between your telephone and digital ad strategies.

Victory Phones is a leader in automated telephony services and data compilation with a commitment to connecting to the public in clients' desired markets. Through our exclusive partnership, AdVictory offers the opportunity to make the results of your telephony campaigns immediately actionable across an array of advertising platforms.

how it works

AdVictory is able to expand the reach of your campaign by creating an ad universe from your existing audience pools and targeting them across multiple platforms.

From creative development to conversion tracking to data modeling, AdVictory can build your ad campaign without you having to lift a finger

We provide you access to a real-time digital reporting dashboard to view the performance of your campaign whenever you want, across every inventory channel

From delivering hyper-targeted ads based on a respondent's poll results to pushing ads for your survey or amplifying the message of an awareness campaign, AdVictory can give your campaign unparalleled reach and take your digital strategy to the next level.
